

Leonie Horster Deramus, FDA President

Dr. Deramus was born and raised in Munich, Germany. She has a BA in Art History from UCLA 1971, and MD from UT Southwestern medical school in Dallas, TX. Her specialty: Emergency medicine.

She moved to Alaska 1988.

Involvement with FDA: She has always a fan, supporter and mortgage maker. On the Board since 2005. She was the assistant Director for Hap Ryder's 2006 "Lend me a Tenor"

Daughter Lisa (Lathrop graduate) age 32, lives in San Francisco.

Hobbies (other than FDA): Backpacking, cooking, reading, and her dog "Charlie" (who is also a mortgage maker!)